ORDER

On March 15, 2016, East Kentucky Power Cooperative (“EKPC”) tendered a motion to submit this matter for decision on the record without a hearing. Thereafter, on March 24, 2016, EKPC moved to withdraw its motion to submit.

In support of its motion, EKPC states that it has discovered errors in its environmental surcharge maintenance and expense filings spanning the December 2014 through February 2016 expense months. EKPC does not believe the errors go back farther than December 2014 and states that because the instant case is a two-year review, errors cannot be corrected in any future proceedings. Therefore, it asserts that the errors must be addressed in this case. If the errors are not addressed, EKPC contends that the errors will continue to impact its monthly surcharge calculations through January 2017.

Accordingly, EKPC requests to withdraw its motion to submit and to file a revised response to Commission Staff’s First Request for Information, Item 1.

Based on a review of EKPC's motion to withdraw and being otherwise sufficiently advised, the Commission finds good cause to grant the request.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that EKPC's motion to withdraw its March 15, 2016 motion to submit this matter on the existing record and to file a revised response to Commission Staff's First Request for Information, Item 1, is granted.

By the Commission
